

Timothy E. Quackenbush

June 12, 2011

Tim passed away on March 26, 2011, at the age of 54, of lung cancer at his mother's home in Central Point, Ore. He was born in Medford, Ore. on November 27, 1956, to Ted R. Quackenbush and Jean Houston Quackenbush.

Tim graduated from Medford Senior High in 1975, and had 3 and a half years of college. He moved to Milwaukie, Ore., then later to Clackamas. He married E. Sharon Steach in Reno, Nev., on August 17, 2003.

Tim worked at Antelope Welding in Medford, Ore., for many years. Later he worked for Watts Welding, in Tigard, Ore., which is now Air Gas.

He loved the outdoors. He played sports at school and excelled in the shotput. Tim watched all sports, especially the Portland Trail Blazers. He enjoyed playing bingo and going to the casinos.

Tim is survived by wife, Sharon, of Clackamas, Ore.; his mother, Jean Quackenbush Hawley, of Central Point, Ore.; two sisters, Nanette Barnard, of Jacksonville, Ore. and her family, Amber Barnard, of Nipoma, Calif., Ashley Southmayd, her husband, Eric and their two daughters, Violet and Cora, of Medford, Ore. and Tim Barnard, of Medford, Ore.; Pamela Bean, of Medford, Ore. and her family, Jesse Bean, of Clackamas, Ore. and Cassandra Bean, of Medford, Ore.; Dennis Quackenbush, and wife, Carol, and their family, Jeremy Quackenbush and daughter, Charys, Brandon Quackenbush and son, Pierce Quackenbush and Dana Quackenbush, and his wife, Dianne and their family Curtis Quackenbush and Lorraine Polus, and daughter, Angel and Jack Polus.

There will be a celebration of his life at Donahue/Frohmyer Park in Medford, Ore., for family and close friends from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, June 18, 2011. For more details call (541)664-4070.

Arrangements by: Conger-Morris Central Point Chapel (541) 664-3361. He was cremated there after his death.

Tim was a very special person and will be loved and missed by his family and friends.